God's in Charge

1 Pharaoh planned to stop Hebrew population growth, but God made the nation grow. Match "Pharaoh's Plans" and "God's Responses" to the pictures in the middle. Draw lines between the sets of dots. One is done for you.

Pharaoh's Plans

Commanded midwives to kill every baby boy born to Hebrew mothers.

K

Appointed taskmasters to enslave Hebrews to build supply cities.

G

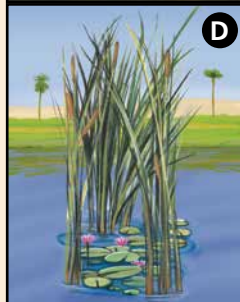

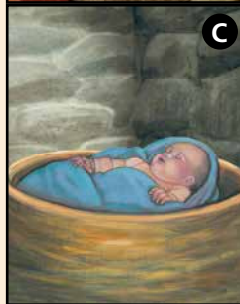

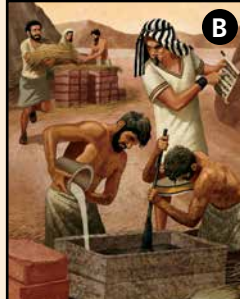

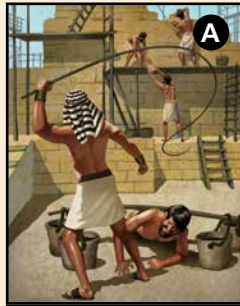

Commissioned every Egyptian to find Hebrew baby boys and throw them into the Nile.

Commanded taskmasters to treat the Hebrews harshly for failing to make bricks fast enough.

N

God's Responses

God caused the Hebrew population to boom despite being enslaved to build cities.

God caused the midwives to fear Him and spare Hebrew baby boys.

I

God protected Moses in the Nile and allowed for his return to his mom.

W

God caused the Hebrew families to grow despite Egyptians demanding they make bricks faster.

O

2 Unscramble the letters crossed through on the Pharaoh side. Write the word in the first set of circles below. Unscramble the letters crossed on the God side. Write the word in the second set of circles below.

No one, not even powerful kings and rulers, can ○ ○ ○ ○ God from doing His ○ ○ ○ ○ !

3 Write 2 prayer requests and talk to God about them. Praise Him for His sovereignty.

Lined writing area for prayer requests.

God always does as He pleases.

God's Sovereignty and Me

1 Read Job 42:1, 2.

No one can stop God's plans because God is sovereign. What does it mean for God to be "sovereign"? Use the code to finish the explanation.

God is sovereign in that He has absolute _____ and _____ over everything and everyone.

A E H I O P R T U W Y

2 Read Psalm 29:10.

Thousands of years ago, God sat enthroned at the Flood as the sovereign over all the earth. Will God still be sovereign 1,000 years from now?

yes no

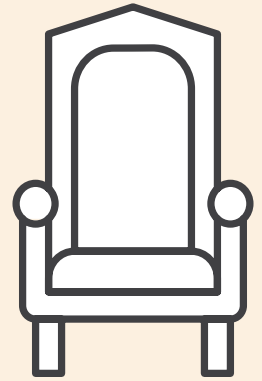

A million years from now?

yes no

How about forever?

yes no

Color what you think God's "forever throne" might look like.

My Time in God's Word

3 Read Isaiah 43:13.

God said that what He does cannot be reversed. Everything God does is forever! Jesus' death on the cross for your sins can never be undone! Write a praise to God for saving sinners forever!

5 Read Ephesians 3:20, 21.

God's sovereignty means you can pray with absolute confidence in God's ability to answer. God's sovereignty should motivate you to pray every day! Pray to God 3 times in the next 24 hours. Rejoice in His sovereignty!

Color a circle each time you pray!

4 Read Ephesians 3:20, 21.

God's sovereignty means He is not limited by anyone or anything. In fact, He is so powerful that we can't even imagine everything God could do. Draw something amazing God could do. Then draw something God could do that is even more amazing.

Amazing!

More amazing!
